

PLANT CHICAGO FARMERS MARKET

SUMMER 2017 SEASON APPLICATION

Join Plant Chicago for our third year of the Plant Chicago Farmers Market! Plant Chicago is a 501c3 nonprofit working to develop circular economies while empowering people of all backgrounds to make their cities healthier and more efficient. Our market is located in the Back of the Yards neighborhood at The Plant, a 93,500 square foot former meat packing plant being repurposed into a community of food-producing businesses focused on closing waste loops.

We had 15 regular vendors and an average of 150 shoppers per market day during our 2016 summer season. Over our 2016/17 indoor season, our average number of shoppers increased to 400, and we are looking to add more produce and food vendors in 2017 to meet demands of our growing customer base.

CLOSING THE LOOP AT THE MARKET: WASTE MANAGEMENT GUIDELINES

Plant Chicago is a 501c3 nonprofit organization with a mission to develop circular economies of food production, energy conservation, and materials reuse, while empowering people of all backgrounds to make their cities healthier and more efficient. We strive to carry out this mission through each of our programs, including the farmers market!

In order to carry out this mission at the market, Plant Chicago encourages all vendors to be conscious of their waste management practices while on site. Plant Chicago will provide separate bins with educational signage for garbage, recycling, and composting for general use on market days. Vendors are strongly encouraged to understand the correct method for disposing of materials used or consumed at their booths, and to properly sort and dispose of all waste materials produced at their booths throughout the market day (please see chart below).

Plant Chicago also does not allow bottled water sales or the use of straws, Styrofoam packaging, and non-compostable plastic bags at the market. The Market provides water and cups to shoppers free of charge, and we do not want to create unnecessary cost and waste through bottled water sales and the use of these materials. We especially discourage the use of Styrofoam because it is not produced sustainably, cannot be recycled, and takes over 500 years to decompose in the landfill.

We do not want these guidelines to be a financial burden for vendors. Plant Chicago staff and volunteers are here to help! If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Market Manager.
